

Due to limited specifications of whole items on GeM portal. It is very important to check the quality of items in sample testing. So the bidders will have to deposit all the sample of items at the address of the consignee in sealed envelope by dak/ courier or other means with all cost of the seller. The samples will be checked by BOO. The BOO will have full right to accept and reject the sample of items and shall be disqualify in the bid.